General information

Welcome to Farnham u3a and our programme for 2026-2027. This is where we list all our groups and activities and tell you how you can participate.

Remember that changes will occur frequently during the year. Please check the website www.farnhamu3a.org.uk to make sure you are accessing the latest information.

Key dates for 2026-2027

Open Morning – Monday, 6 July 2026, 10.00 to 12.00, Farnham Maltings. An opportunity to talk to Group Leaders about the many groups available.

Annual General Meeting

The Annual General Meeting will be held on Tuesday, 15 September 2026 starting at 2.00pm before a talk by Lauren Wayland, the Manager of the Farham Museum. Refreshments will be served.

Annual Group Leaders and Group Contacts Meeting

This meeting will be held on Friday, 19 March 2027 - Group Leaders and Group Contacts will be invited.

New Members' Receptions

We are eager to welcome new members and hold receptions for them in the autumn and in the spring. New members will receive an invitation to these events, but as advance notice the first one is scheduled for Monday, 5 October 2026 and the Spring one for Monday, 8 March 2027.

Groups

Groups operate from Tuesday, 1 September 2026 to Wednesday, 30 June 2027, with short breaks for Christmas and Easter, and sometimes half-terms. A few groups may continue over the summer.

To join a group please email the group contact. If the group is full, please ask to be put on the waiting list by the group contact. To join a group, you must be a member of Farnham u3a, and you will need to provide your membership number.

If you find you can no longer attend a group, please inform the group contact so that someone on the waiting list can take your place.

Most groups meet at the Farnham Maltings – where this is not the case, the meeting location is specified in the programme. Please note that the rooms allocated to groups in the Maltings are posted daily on the whiteboard opposite the reception desk. Room changes can occur at short notice, so always check the board.

Social Events

Dates for social events will be posted on the Events Calendar, on the website, on the u3a noticeboard in the corridor towards the Great Hall, and in eNews.

Contact the Membership Engagement Facilitator for more information. Several quizzes are scheduled throughout the year in the evenings. They are usually held from 6.30 to 9.30pm. All u3a members are welcome. You may participate as a member of a team, but by all means turn up on your own as we form ad-hoc teams on the night.

Quiz dates
17 September 2026	22 October 2026
17 December 2026	4 February 2027
15 April 2027	24 June 2027

The monthly Cuppa-and-a-chat sessions are informal pop-in affairs held in the Maltings café. They offer all members the opportunity to meet up with other members or potential members and exchange ideas, find out more about what is happening in Farnham u3a or simply come and chat. Dates are published on the website.

Other social events, such as a book or jigsaw puzzle swap and disco take place on an ad hoc basis. Further information will be provided via eNews, on the website and by email.

Contacts

If you require further information on anything not covered in the programme, please contact the Secretary.

To email a committee member or key role holder, insert the relevant email name immediately in front of @farnhamu3a.org.uk (e.g. chair@farnhamu3a.org.uk).

Annual Theme

Our annual theme this year is “The Extraordinary”. Presentations are given monthly on Friday mornings normally in the Barley Room at Farnham Maltings, starting at 10.30 a.m. and lasting approximately one hour. Please note, however, that the Christmas Event starts at 2.00 p.m. All members are welcome.

The room capacity is 100 and admittance will be on a first-come first-served basis.

Date	Speaker	Title	Description
18 Sep	Christopher Marino	The Story of Cantor Fitzgerald and the 9/11 attacks	When the terrorists attacked the World Trade Centre on 9/11 no company suffered more human loss than Cantor Fitzgerald. Chris shares his first-hand account of that tragic day and the dramatic aftermath of rebuilding the firm.
23 Oct	Peter Tomlinson	A Towering Achievement	A look at the history and expansion of Heathrow Airport and the building of the essential Control Tower. Discover how it was conceived and completed with all the ensuing challenges, right in the middle of one of the world's busiest airports.
20 Nov	David Simpson	Ada Lovelace (1815-52)	The daughter of Lord Byron, Lovelace was a pioneering mathematician whose insight led her to write what is now considered the first computer program. Blending logic with imagination, she envisioned computing's vast potential and became a foundational figure in the history of technology.
11 Dec pm	Andy Wood	Christmas Entertainment	An afternoon of music, humour and drama presented by Andy and friends.
15 Jan	Thoreya Swage	Two Overlooked Women Scientists	For too long the contribution of women to the body of scientific knowledge has been ignored and only a few are recognised. This talk aims to highlight the achievements of two women scientists whose key discoveries had an impact on astronomy.

19 Feb	Andy Wood	Joshua Slocum (1844-1909)	The first recorded person to sail around the globe single-handedly. One of the greatest untold adventures in maritime history. He sailed 46,000 miles in three years, two months and two days.
19 Mar	John Atkinson	Splitting the Atom	Atoms are too small for our eyes to see – so why be interested in splitting them? Quite simply the part they play in the origin of humanity, its continued growth and current concern over its possible extinction.
16 April	Laurence Carter	Garibaldi – The Unification of Italy	1860: In one brief summer, thanks to one man, Italy was upended and for the first time since the Roman empire re-established as a united country.
21 May	Andrew Morgan	Iran – a very different country in 1979	A recollection of working in the Middle East in a time of change – the 1970s. A peaceful and unsophisticated region with a charm unique to its inhabitants shattered by the emergence of the desire for change in what became the Islamic Republic of Iran.
18 Jun	Stephen Goss	Gilbert & Sullivan	Their comic operas made them household names in Victorian England with a combination of musical genius and witty satire. Although they did not always see eye to eye their work transformed British musical theatre creating a popular legacy.

Monthly Meetings

All members are welcome to Monthly Meetings, usually talks by external speakers, which take place on Monday afternoons at 14.00 normally in the Barley Room and last about an hour. Capacity is 100 and admittance is on a first-come first-served basis.

Date	Speaker	Title	Description
28 Sep	Bobbie Darbyshire	A Beginning, a Muddle & an End	In an entertaining, informative talk, prize-winning author Bobbie Darbyshire explains how ideas formulate in the novelist's mind. She has worked as barmaid, mushroom picker, film extra, maths coach, cabinet minister's private secretary, care assistant, volunteer adult-literacy teacher, plus in social research and government policy.
26 Oct	Hilary Roberts	Manipulated Reality: The Camera at War	Hilary presents a new perspective on the role of image manipulation in war photography over the past 170 years, exploring the consequences for our understanding of historic and contemporary conflicts.
23 Nov	Jonathan Jones	Memory: Tricks & Techniques	In this informative and amusing talk, Jonathan will let us into the tricks and techniques used by participants in the World Memory Championships to accomplish seemingly impossible feats. Their memories are not superior to ours, but they do spend many hours honing these skills.

Date	Speaker	Title	Description
7 Dec	Colin Butcher	An Introduction to the Orchestra	Colin who is bringing his tuba will talk about orchestras and bands from an insider's point of view, explaining some of what's happening during rehearsals and performances. The intention of this talk is to help people get a little more out of going to live performances.
25 Jan	Lorraine Spindler	Mud, Money & Marvels: Secrets of the Thames Foreshore	Once the desperate work of London's poorest, riverside scavenging has evolved into a remarkable way of uncovering the city's past as each find tells a story. Lorraine explores the history, rules, surprising treasures and some recently discovered objects which you can see up close.
22 Feb	Susan Purcell	Crosswords	Crosswords are not just about leisure and enjoyment; the intelligence services have always taken a close interest in them. Susan will look at their history and regale us with anecdotes. The talk is light-hearted and aimed at everyone - those who do and those who don't.
22 Mar	Andy Thomas	The Crop Circle Mystery	With stunning visuals, Andy explores this extraordinary phenomenon appearing in fields yearly around the world and still defying total explanation. He reveals their fascinating history up to the present and explores both the amazing designs and the many varied and imaginative theories to explain them.

Date	Speaker	Title	Description
26 Apr	Andy Richardson	The Aviator Hall of Fame	An illustrated biography of a selection of Aviation's greatest pioneers, Influencers and heroes as chosen by Andy and concluding with an audience vote as to who should head their Hall of Fame.
24 May	James & Christine Rowley	Henry Mayhew's London Characters	During the 1840s journalist Henry Mayhew interviewed hundreds of street vendors and characters. Discover many strange professions and how they survived. The story is brought to life with readings, music and illustrations and covers his colourful life and his influence on Dickens and others.
28 Jun	Kathryn Harkup	'A' is for Arsenic	and also for Agatha Christie who revelled in using poison, carefully chosen to kill off unfortunate victims. We will look at howdunnit but whodunnit is for you to discover. Kathryn is a former chemist. Her interests are anything gothic, gory and geeky - preferably all three!

Artificial Intelligence

– Alan Freeland

This group has two aims. First, to provide members the confidence and support to proactively use Artificial Intelligence (AI) in their everyday lives both for fun and as an assistant in solving life's many tasks. Members will be expected to use AI Chatbots, such as ChatGPT, between meetings and share their experiences. Second, to explore how AI is being used in society. Members will be expected to share their views on these topics. Typically, each month's class will have two sessions, one focused on AI and society and one focused on members' use of AI.

Bridge - Beginners and Improvers

– Andrew Ward

This group is run in two streams: beginners, and bridge players who want to improve their game. Beginners can join at the start of each term, i.e. on 2 September, 6 January and 31 March and they will start with some mini bridge (playing) courses followed by a 4- session course covering the basics of bidding. Once completed beginners can continue playing and learning with support from experienced bridge players. For improvers we will run weekly sessions on bidding, partnership understanding, declarer play and defence. Wherever you are in your bridge journey we can help you.

Most sessions will take place at The Maltings with additional sessions marked with an asterix () at the Bourne Club.*

Concert Club

– Alison Boydell, Mary Somerville, Juliet Evans

Concert Club is for people who enjoy listening to live classical music. We organise concerts at various venues, travelling by coach. For trips to London we try to arrive about an hour before the concert so people can have a meal beforehand if they wish. The concerts we choose cover as wide a spectrum of music as possible – we try to vary orchestras, venues and repertoire to please as many group members as we can. They can select as many concerts (or as few) as they like. For more details go to:

<https://farnhamu3a.org.uk/groups/concert-club/>

Creative Writing

– self-led

This self-led group aims to provide a friendly and encouraging venue for aspiring writers. Every month we each read a short (no more than 1,000 words) work of fiction we have written, on a title or idea chosen the previous month. Our stories encompass a wide range of genres and may include memoirs, poetry, flash fiction, and excerpts from longer works. They just have to be creative! Only positive, non-critical feedback is allowed.

Cycling Club

Monday: Andrew Melbourne, Maxine Dunn; Wednesday: Bob Mercer, David Hepper; Thursday: Ian Newman, Douglas and Jenny Gordon

This group gives all abilities of cyclists a chance to ride in a friendly, non-competitive environment. There are four rides in total across Mondays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. Minimum equipment: a well-maintained bike, cycle helmet, spare inner tube & pump. Additional equipment suggested: hi-vis jacket/tabard (u3a tabards available free to members), water bottle, money for coffee and cake. Cyclists with e-bikes are very welcome to join the rides. See also the group's webpage <https://farnhamu3a.org.uk/groups/cycling/> for information on risk assessment and compliance with regulations.

Monday Riders: a fortnightly chance for a bit of exercise after the weekend, a circular ride starting at 10.00 am from The Bourne Green (parking available). Distance will be between 20 and 25 miles at about 10-12 miles an hour, inevitably with undulations! We will generally keep to roads with a chance for refreshments at the end of the ride. Places will be limited to 23 plus a leader so group members will need to sign up for each ride via our group email. Up to 3 sets of 8 will ride separately from each other so the third group can go at a slower pace if they wish.

Day Trips

– Steve Tilburn and Colin Jordan

We aim to provide at least 10 trips each year by coach from 2 pick-up points in Farnham — namely Hart Car Park and Sainsbury's Water Lane. We have arranged with a local Travel Company to provide day trips selected by the Day Trip Group Leaders, to various sites in the Southeast. Members' suggestions are always welcome. The places visited will be of general interest and each trip length will aim to be up to a maximum of 8 hours. Trips will be competitively priced, and members selected on a first come, first served basis.

Film Buffs

– Nicola Norman

Join this friendly group to discuss your favourite films, directors and genres. We've got everything covered - from timeless classics and blockbusters to documentaries and biopics to world cinema and indie films along with a few hidden gems! We analyse themes, look at film history, explore interpretations and share our recommendations. We also tap into film anniversaries, director seasons and film awards such as the Oscars. In addition, we have a DVD library for members to use.

Healthy Eating

– Thea Morgan

*An interactive group. Each meeting focuses on a different food group or groups, exploring the nutritional and health benefits or otherwise of the components. Recipes will be discussed for their health benefits then tried at home. Other topics will cover fats, proteins, carbohydrates, Ultra-processed Foods and types of diet. Additionally, members are invited to bring their favourite recipes or meal ideas to discuss how these can be made healthier. Please note that this group will largely cover the same topics as in previous years, so if you attended that group, you may not wish to attend again.

History groups

We have six groups which explore different aspects of history, both local and global.

Family History 1 & 2 – Lorna Thomas

Family History Main Group: Roots & Records (1): Workshop style meetings with plenty of interaction and contributions from members. For those who have already begun their Family History journey and want to take their research further. We cover recent research developments including DNA and AI; digital technology tools and looking at our ancestors in the wide historical and social perspective. We share experience via group discussions; informative talks and projects. Above all, we make family history FUN.

Family History Getting Started (2) is a course of meetings designed to get you underway on your Family History journey! Covering the BASICS: where to start; what to do next; research techniques & tips; family trees; storage & archiving; online resources; where to find documents and what is available; hints & tips to avoid common pitfalls.* small room

Philosophy

We have two Philosophy discussion groups, differing slightly in mode of operation, as explained below.

Philosophy 1 – Ann Vickers

In Philosophy 1 we prepare a chapter from our current book-choice (or something from the media) and then look at it in detail during the class. Discussion is encouraged.

Political Hot Spots – Brian Holt The world has many hot spots where inter-state conflict (or serious mass communal violence inside a state) occurs. Some will have a bearing on British security and/or trade interests. The purpose of the Political Hot Spots group is to discover about and discuss these events and possibilities. Initially we will look at the work of the UN and regional organisations in promoting international peace and security. Then we will look at various Hot Spots, group members taking turns to present, in a non-biased way, a short introduction to the subject before group discussion.

Short Stories

– Jane Blandy

*Like good book group but with only a short story to read. In preparation, we ask you to read a story from our chosen anthology and think about some questions for discussion. At the session we listen to one of our group introduce the writer and the story before discussing it in a small group and as a whole group. It is surprising how much we all learn from close reading and discussion. Current book: The Penguin Book of Contemporary British Short Story ed. Philip Hensher.

Tai Chi

Groups 1-4 are led by professional, paid leaders. These groups cater for beginners and improvers. They begin with warm-up exercises and deep breathing routines, leading to the slow controlled movements of the Form, to improve balance, coordination and concentration. There is a fee for each of these groups. Group 5 is for Beginners and Group 6 for Continuing members from Group 5. The form improves balance, but the main aims are strength, flexibility and stillness. These are not led by a professional paid leader, so there is no charge.

Theatre Group

- Mandy Caine

The Theatre Group arranges visits, by coach, to a variety of theatres in the area, including Chichester, Southampton, Woking, Richmond and London. We aim for a varied programme including musicals, comedy, and serious plays. Future shows are advertised in advance on the group's webpage; details are emailed out to the group's members approximately 8-10 weeks beforehand. Members will be selected on a first come, first served basis.

Chair Yoga

– Sophie Kenée

Chair Yoga is a gentle, accessible form of yoga designed for individuals who may have difficulty with traditional yoga poses. It involves performing yoga postures while seated in a chair or using a chair for support during standing poses. This practice is particularly beneficial for seniors, individuals with mobility challenges, or anyone looking for a low-impact way to improve flexibility, strength, and mindfulness. There are two groups. It is run by a professional leader and there will be a charge for the course. The meeting place is Daniel Hall.
